Ashley Schilling informed the Council of the upcoming Florida League of Cities conference, August 17-19. Councilmember Nichols expressed his desire to attend. Mayor Edwards and Councilman Roddenberry will also be attending.

Councilmember Roddenberry thanked everyone in attendance for their support of City issues.

Mayor, Lara Edwards, also thanked the citizens for their support.

Councilmember Lewis would like Clerk Schilling and Attorney Cox to update the use of equipment policy in the administrative manual. He also addressed the recent media/fb articles regarding the Social Media Policy and a post Councilman Roddenberry made. Mr. Lewis stated, "After the May meeting you published statements on your Facebook page and attributed them to me. I never made those statements. In fact, those statements were diametrically opposed to what I actually said. You lied about me on your Facebook page. You tried to steal from me one of the only important things a man can leave his children, his name and his reputation. You should be ashamed of yourself."

Councilman Rudd also takes issue with recent facebook postings, stating Mr. Roddenberry went too far. The employee issues that were spoken of at tonight's meeting are personal in nature, and as such should have never been brought to a City meeting.

With no further business, the meeting adjourned at 7:50 p.m. Motion by Lewis, second by Roddenberry.
